$46,000 Held County's Share In World Fair

Supervisors Consider Joining Association To Plan Exhibit

When the San Francisco Golden Gate International Exposition swings under way in 1939, San Mateo county will have a worthy share in the celebration.

This the board of supervisors decided in San Jose Monday night as they met with representatives from Santa Clara, Santa Cruz and Monterey counties and agreed to participate with other Mission Trails Association counties in a joint $240,000 exhibit, to which the state is expected to contribute a similar sum.

The local supervisors agreed tentatively to put two cents on the tax rate for two years to raise an estimated $46,000 as this county's share of the cost.

"We anticipate state participation in construction of the building at least," Supervisor Fred E. Beer stated.

MISSION-TYPE BUILDING

The state's share is expected to come from the $5,000,000 appropriated by the legislature for the Treasure Island exposition in the middle of San Francisco bay. The supervisors anticipated that aid might be forthcoming even more readily since Governor Merriam vetoed a bill which would have ear-marked $500,000 of this sum for the Visitacion Valley livestock pavilion.

In preliminary discussions a mission-type building, perhaps a copy of one of the actual missions, was suggested.

The idea of joint participation by the association counties was first suggested by William McCarthy, former county publicity director. The plans laid by the board coincide with McCarthy's parting recommendation to the supervisors.

COST PRO-RATED

An executive committee, to be made up of one supervisor from each of the seven and possibly eight counties expected to take part in the plan, is to direct the financing of the exhibit.

Cost of the building will be pro-rated, as will, in all likelihood, the cost of maintenance and publicity, but how each county spends its exhibit money will be left strictly up to the individual counties, according to the local board.

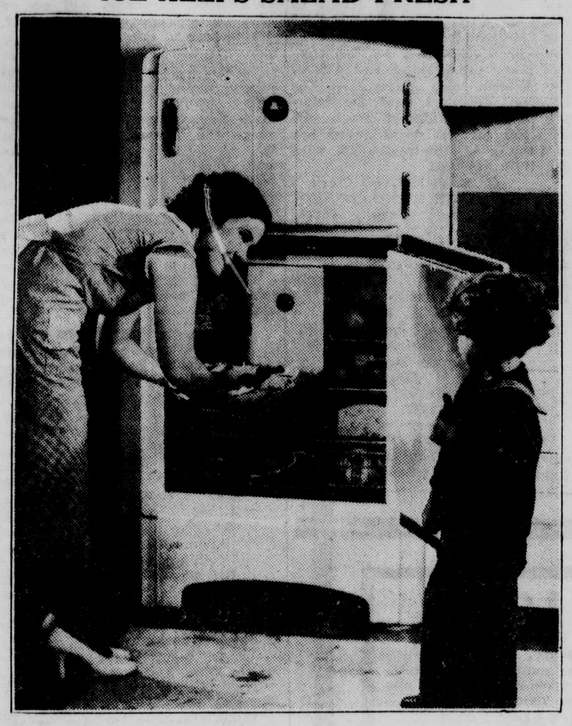
Definitely committed to the plan, besides the counties represented at the session last night, are Santa Barbara and San Luis Obispo and San Benito counties. Ventura county is also a member of the association, but has not decided yet whether to take part in the joint exhibit.

CITIZENS TO AID

Later, citizens are to be named to a committee to aid the executive committee in making plans for the mutual project.

Definite arrangements for the two-cent levy on the tax rate will be made when the maintenance and capital outlay budget is adopted following a public hearing to be held July 26.

ICE KEEPS SALAD FRESH



Mrs. Herbert Miller takes an afternoon off by making a fruit salad the main course of the evening meal. Made in the morning, it can be placed in an air-conditioned ice refrigerator—there to stay fresh and crisp until dinner. Herbert, Jr., watches with interest while holding open the refrigerator door.

Ice Refrigerator Gives Freshness For All Salads

A salad for the evening meal—yes, and it will stay fresh and crisp in an air conditioned ice refrigerator. It's something that can be put together any time during the day and brought to the table at meal time.

Air conditioned ice refrigeration keeps salads and other foods from losing their attractive appearance and fresh taste. The film of water on melting ice supplies moisture to the constantly circulating air within the refrigerator, keeping the air around the foods from becoming dry.

Make this salad some morning soon, place in your ice refrigerator, and notice how attractive and how tasty it will be for the evening meal.

TWO-TONE FRUIT SALAD

Part 1:
1 package lime gelatin
1 No. 2 can grapefruit
2 cups liquid

Pour 1 cup of boiling water over gelatin. Add 1 cup of grapefruit juice. When cool, pour into mold, arrange the grapefruit, and put in ice refrigerator to set.

Part 2:
1 package lemon gelatin
2 packages Philadelphia cream cheese
1 No. 2½ can pears.

Measure one cup pear juice. Boil, and pour over gelatin. Add one more cup of cold pear juice. Let cool, Cream the cheese and whip into the gelatin with rotary beater. Add pears, which have been mashed or put through a sieve. Pour on top of Part 1 and return to ice refrigerator.

East Palo Alto Rancher Drowns At Clear Lake

Apparently the victim of a heart attack, Pierre de Beaudrap, 51, owner of a pigeon farm at 580 Walnut street, East Palo Alto, went to his death in Clear Lake early Sunday while swimming.

The body was found by a searching party after Lester E. Coy of Palo Alto, Beaudrap's week-end companion, reported his friend's failure to return to their cabin at Austin's Resort.

Coy said that Beaudrap and he had attended the Saturday night dance at the camp, and returned to their cabin about 2 a.m. when Beaudrap decided to take an early morning swim in the lake.

Kellogg Moves To San Mateo, Joins Realtor

Walter T. Kellogg, former county executive who was replaced June 2 by Ernest A. Rolison, has moved from Redwood City to San Mateo and is now associated in the real estate business with the Burlingame firm of Martin & Company.

That Kellogg, who before he took over the county executiveship was associated with the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, has gone into the real estate business, was confirmed by Edward R. Martin, head of the firm.

Temporarily the Kelloggs are living with their son, Dr. William E. Kellogg, 52 San Mateo drive, San Mateo. Where they will live permanently has not been decided yet, according to Mrs. Kellogg.

Before Kellogg can be a full-fledged real estate salesman, he must pass a state examination and secure a license. He will work under a temporary license until he wins the state permit, Martin said.

When in Redwood City, the Kelloggs lived at the Jansing apartments, 150 Duane street. They moved away from there June 1.

Kellogg has been associated with the real estate firm since the first of this month, according to Martin.

There is no room inside this trailer filled with Stanford Convalescent Home Auxiliary members, who, participating in the San Mateo County National Horse Show, are calling upon friends and show supporters in this fancy trailer. The show, scheduled to open August 7 for eight days at the Menlo Circus Club, is expected to be the best ever, with many new out-of-state exhibitors present. Mrs. Murray Innes, Jr., is the hitch hiker here while inside are (left to right) Mesdames Charles Montanye, Vincent Hobbs, Elmer Jennings, Hugh Phillipps and Richard Westphal.

Races of Many Sorts Planned At Harbor Fete

Water Sports Promise Thrilling Spectacle Here in September

Promise of thrilling competition was given today by plans formulated by the Redwood City Harbor Festival Athletics Committee for the sports features of the September 10, 11 and 12 celebration.

Yacht racing, outboard motor boat competition, swimming, possibly diving, and rowing races will be staged at the port Saturday and Sunday afternoons of the festival week-end, it was announced by Perry Bygdnes, chairman of the committee.

Tentative plans made by the committee propose to bring all the thrills of water sports before spectators at the dedication of the new harbor.

CLUBS MAY ROW

Lino Niccoli, in charge of yacht racing plans, will invite snipe boats and other small craft for races that are expected to dot the harbor colorfully with sails.

Plans for rowing races between local fraternal and service clubs were mapped. Howard King of the Kiwanis Club will aid in securing sufficient rowboats for this feature of the program. Boats from the destroyers which are expected here for the event will also be invited to stage some special races.

Swimming events, with Fred O. Glover in charge of plans, will also be held. Tentatively set are competition for boys and girls under 16 years of age over a 50-yard course, an inter-club swimming race over the same distance, and an open competition race over 100 yards. Backstroke and breaststroke races may also be offered.

YACHT RACES SUNDAY

Diving will also be held, if it is possible to secure the proper tower or springboard, according to Bygdnes.

The preliminary plans call for the yacht racing to be held Sunday and the outboard competition Saturday.

Letters will be sent out by Niccoli in the near future extending an invitation to all bay region yacht clubs to send entries for the yacht race.

Realtors Request El Camino Real Sign Elimination

Elimination of all signs and billboards along El Camino Real in Redwood City will be sought by the Redwood City District Real Estate Board.

Henry Witte, board president, announced Wednesday that the real estate organization will petition the city council to legislate the signs out of existence.

Decision to take this action was made by the real estate board as it met Wednesday in the chamber of commerce office.

Witte said that the board has also decided to take steps to have all real estate offices in Redwood City close on Sundays.

In connection with the board's drive against unsightly signs marring the course of El Camino Real through the city, Witte said the real estate board hopes that their local members will lead the way by eliminating real estate signs.

The board also discussed inauguration of an FHA-Better Homes Week sometime during the next two months, on co-operation with the chamber of commerce, such a movement being suggested by the FHA district office in San Francisco.

Cahill Pushes Plan For Hetchy Line

Public Utilities Manager E. G. Cahill of San Francisco has announced new plans for furnishing peninsula cities and towns, not now so served, with Hetch Hetchy water, and at the same time said he saw little likelihood of obtaining a PWA grant for the pipe line project which had been proposed.

"Congressman Franck R. Havenner informed me that PWA is reluctant to aid the project unless we can meet our end of the cost by a bond issue," Cahill said. "A bond issue is out of the question so we're going to take $260,000 from our reserve funds in the Public Utilities Department and begin work immediately."

Cahill expected to confer with City Atty. John J. O'Toole on the legal aspects. The $260,000 appropriation was passed recently by the board of supervisors.

A pipeline would be constructed from the main Hetch Hetchy pipe at Five Points in Redwood City, running through Atherton, Menlo Park and Stanford University.

SUCCUMBS SUDDENLY

Apparently of a heart attack, Herman Barmer, 62, Hillcrest drive, died Wednesday at Mills Memorial Hospital in San Mateo, where he was admitted late last night. An autopsy will be performed, Coroner William Crosby said. The Suhr and Wieboldt undertaking parlor in San Francisco will conduct the funeral.

County Joins War On Pork Disease

San Mateo county joined San Francisco Wednesday in a preventive war against trichinosis, disease which lurks in uncooked pork.

As San Francisco banned the only two hog ranches remaining within its city limits, Dr. Charles C. Gans, county health director, announced that San Mateo county's 29 hog ranch owners would be urged to feed their 55,000 hogs only cooked swill.

Meat from hogs whose swill diet is uncooked is a frequent carrier of the extremely painful disease which imbeds itself in muscles, causing a high fever and sometimes death.

Dr. Gans emphasized that there has been no trichinosis scare, but that the present moves are being made to prevent any spread of the disease.

Under an agreement with San Francisco, the city's last remaining ranches will move to the country within a year. They may come to San Mateo county, according to reports.

WATCHMAN HURT IN CRASH

Charles Stewart, 64, San Francisco WPA watchman, was recovering today from injuries he suffered Monday evening when his machine collided at the San Bruno intersection on the Bayshore highway with the car of Dr. Daniel E. Egan, 50, Burlingame. Stewart was treated at South San Francisco Hospital for a cut scalp and bruised shoulder.

Survey of Serra Road Nears End

The state-financed survey of the proposed extension of Junipero Serra from just south of Lawndale to Burlingame will be completed within three weeks, Engineer John H. Skeggs of the state highway department reported to the board of directors of highway district No. 10 at a meeting late Tuesday in San Francisco.

With the survey completed, a study will begin on the costs of financing the extension, which is expected to be extremely expensive because of the need to purchase rights-of-way through valuable land.

Skeggs dissipated all immediate hope that the present Junipero Serra highway would be taken into the state highway system. He declared that the state is adverse to taking over maintenance work on any new roads during this biennium.

This afternoon the highway directors were to accompany County Engineer U. S. Marshall on an inspection trip of the highway to determine feasibility of a WPA project proposed by Marshall for maintenance of the road and slide-prevention work.

Skeggs said that the state had agreed that the eventual scope of Junipero Serra will reach from San Francisco to Los Altos, but when the new sections can be completed is a matter of conjecture.

Sunday Raid Yields Gambling Suspects

Vincent de la Cruz, 39, pantry boy, and Jess Rodriquez, 21, tanner, were interested today more in the Goddess of Justice than in the Goddess of Fortune to whom they were allegedly paying tribute late Sunday afternoon when police interrupted their "worship."

The pair were arrested at 2303 El Camino Real in a Five Points pool room as police broke in on a dice game and other asserted participants fled pell mell beyond the reach of the law.

Both men were freed on posting of $10 bail to appear Thursday afternoon in police court.

Early 'Dime Store' Operator Succumbs

SAN MATEO, July 14.—One of the first originators of the "dime store," Henry Hardy, 79, of San Mateo, died in Mills Hospital early today. He had lived in San Mateo for 18 years. He was retired.

Hardy opened one of the original "dime stores" in Omaha, Nebr., before the turn of the century. He was a member of the Masonic order, and past potentate of the Shrine Temple of Omaha. His widow, Mrs. Edith Hardy, three sons and two daughters survive.

Jacks, ball, and rope jumping were games played by the ancient Roman children.

Templeton Declines To Prosecute Pair

"They're good boys, I wouldn't want to press charges against them."

These words of Stanford Track Coach Robert L. ("Dink") Templeton got Carl O. York, 25, and Albert Clark, 22, out of jail, but because the state isn't so lenient, the pair must return here Friday to face reckless driving charges before Judge Edward I. McAuliffe.

Templeton said he didn't believe that York and Clark had meant to steal his car July 8. Their story was that a stranger they believed to be the owner told them they could take the machine.

The reckless driving charge grew out of the method which the pair used to push their disabled machine to San Francisco. York, driving Templeton's car, was pushing Clark in another car at 70 miles per hour along the Bayshore highway, according to Patrolman Elmer Grandy.

County Again Budgets Crippled Tots' Fund

Miss Janet M. Wood, head of the crippled children's program of the state department of health, met Tuesday with Dr. Charles C. Gans, county health and welfare director, discussing the county's share in the program. She received assurance that the county will participate in the program as it did last year, when $2000 was budgeted for the purpose.

Also in attendance at the conference, which was a monthly gathering of the health and welfare department division heads, were Dr. A. Frank Brewer and Public Health Nurse Esther Baxter, who reported "a splendid health record" for the coastside pea-picker camps this year.

With the itinerant workers gradually leaving for other areas, their numbers being reduced from a peak of 1814 on June 19 to 500 now, there has been very little illness and practically no communicable disease in the camps this year, the health officials in charge of the camps reported.

An increasing number of American tourists are visiting the "Land of the Midnight Sun." It is estimated 15,500 American travelers visited Sweden last year compared with 9,700 in 1935.

FEW SPEEDERS, MANY OTHER ROAD 'SINNERS' FACE JUDGE E. J. RYAN

Pinch-hitting for Judge Edward McAuliffe, who is on a vacation, Judge Edward J. Ryan of Menlo Park had a relatively light court calendar of speeding cases Thursday, Friday and Saturday, but was kept busy by numerous other highway and city arrests.

Only seven speeders were cited by highway patrolmen, and two by local police.

Four of the patrol's citations resulted in $5 fines for John Cuthbertson, Gladys Castillion, Charles Wunderling and Charles Pinkus, all of San Francisco; Edward Corbet of Palo Alto was assessed $2.50; Maurice Melmon of San Francisco paid $3.50; and Albert Copitzky of San Mateo, $10.

For speeding in Redwood City fen paid $5 apiece.

Russell H. Wood and William Grif-

Not driving in a single lane cost Carl E. Rock Jr. of Millbrae $5, a highway patrol arrest, while five persons, Marie Nicolarte and Clio Milam, both of Redwood City; Lawrence Faber and O. L. Stephenson Jr., both of Palo Alto, and Richard Fitzgerald of San Carlos were fined $1 apiece for not stopping at arterials, an offense which cost John Pelargon of San Francisco $2.50.

Arterial breaches in Redwood City cost Lee P. Sam $2.50 and Thomas Ricks $1. Disregarding a flagman brought a $5 penalty to Tovio Makela. M. J. Baer, D. Mikkelson, Eugene Barrett and Floyd McCue were fined $1 each for over-parking here.

Board Slashes One Request As Budget Studied

Supervisors Seeking To Effect Economies In Capital Outlay

First to feel the knife of economy as the supervisors began intensive work Monday on the capital outlay and maintenance budget which they must approve this month was the $41,233 requested budget of Fire Warden Bert Werder.

Following a conference with the board and the mutual decision that under the circumstances Werder's proposed extensive fire-prevention program should be curtailed, he voluntarily cut $12,793 from his requests.

Supervisor Fred E. Beer emphasized that the resulting fire department budget of $28,440 is only a tentative figure and may be changed either at subsequent meetings, or at the public hearings next month.

The supervisors plan to meet nearly daily as they tackle a requested maintenance budget of $811,823, compared to the $740,581 allowed last year.

The reductions in the fire warden's budget were made through decision to omit maintenance of the Saratoga Summit station, which is near Santa Cruz county territory, and to purchase a new tank truck only partially equipped for $2000, instead of $5000, and in other smaller economies.

Next year the equipment for the truck will be purchased, according to the board's plans. The truck is to be stationed so that it will be able to service both the west and east side of the mountains, Supervisor Beer said.

Child Narrowly Misses Death By Poison Pills

Pink and white pills, and little white capsules, looking like candy to childish eyes, came dangerously close to bringing the haze of death to the eyes of a 10-year-old Redwood City girl Monday night.

Gloria Bertolucci, playing with her sisters in the yard of her home at Spring and Chestnut street, found the pills and capsules in old luggage in a shed.

She swallowed several. Not long afterwards she was seized with convulsions, and when Dr. Harry E. Mason reached the child she appeared dead.

But rushed by police patrol car to the Mason-Monteith Emergency Hospital, the child was revived. Taken to Mills Memorial Hospital in San Mateo, she continued to improve, and wednesday was well enough to be brought home to her mother, Mrs. Caroline Bertolucci Andreini.

Henry W. Edmonds.

With new nominations made at the meeting, the Legionnaires elected Duncan Reynard, first vice commander; Andrew B. Blakely, second vice commander; Millard W. Berry, adjutant; Carl Underwood, finance officer; James Debenedetti, historian, and Rev. William J. Owen, chaplain.

Floyd Granger, Major Edmonds and Dr. John N. Blood were elected to the executive committee.

Delegates named to the state convention in Stockton were newly-elected Commander Walsh, Major Edmonds, Dr. Blood, Granger, Tom Vernall and Harold S. Hawks. Alternates are Reynard, Fred Crumb, Emmett Donnelly, J. G. Barrett, Rev. Schuyler Pratt and Carl S. Underwood.

Delegates named to the 26th district council were Walsh, Rev. Pratt, Donnelly, Dr. Blood and Andrew B. Blakely. Alternates: Reynard, Hawks, Rev. Owen, Earl Gray and Irvin J. Cooper.

Dist. Comm. C. H. Whitney and Second Vice Dist. Comm. Lee Williams of Burlingame were present and spoke, Whitney congratulating the post on what he termed "the splendid way in which it has carried out the legion program during the past year," and on the gain made in membership. Whitney said Redwood City now had a membership of 201—largest in the county—with Burlingame having 178, San Mateo, 168; Daly City, 100, and South San Francisco, 78.

The post passed a resolution recommending Floyd Granger for second vice commander of the 26th district. The resolution will be presented at the next district council meeting July 23.

Ordeal May Force Discard of Ship

The West Mahwah's ordeal on a sandbar off Pescadero may cause the freighter, released late Saturday after two days of buffeting by the surf, to be discarded from service, reports in San Francisco indicated today.

While from certain sources came estimates placing the damage at $100,000, from others, including owners of the ship, the view was stated that no accurate determination of the harm done the 8800-ton vessel could be determined until divers have completed their inspection of the hull and the ship unloaded, has been placed in drydock.

Seamen were unanimous in the belief, however, that the damage must have been serious since the ship rested on the bad amidships, with the weight of her cargo fore and aft placing a tremendous strain on the hull with the rise and fall of each sea, and threatening to break the craft in two.

Meanwhile two investigations were launched into the accident, one by the company and another by the federal government.

JUST BLUFFING? CAR NEARLY GOES OVER CLIFF IN COASTSIDE CRASH

Their car turning over twice and coming to rest with the front wheels hanging over a bluff just north of Half Moon Bay, six persons narrowly escaped serious and possibly fatal injuries Sunday night after a headon collision.

The crash was the most serious of several over the week-end, which once again passed, as have the five preceding week-ends, unmarred by a traffic fatality.

Marie F. Lowrey, 30, of San Francisco, was the driver of the machine which nearly hurtled over the bluff after colliding with a car driven by Robert McMahon, 17, also of San Francisco.

Miss Lowrey hurt her knee, and her passenger, Margaret Norton, 40, suffered minor head injuries. They were the only ones hurt among the six in the car. Clarence Gould, 16, of Berkeley, with McMahon, incurred a severe gash on his head. All were given medical aid on the coastside.

In a Sunday afternoon collision in Redwood City, at the East Brewster avenue and Bayshore highway intersection, three persons were hurt.

The car of H. G. Glenn, who police said admitted to them that he disregarded an arterial sign, crashed into that of Joe Coblentz, 52. Mrs. Jean Coblentz cut her head badly, and Mrs. Glenn injured her leg. Robert Coblentz, 10, was slightly hurt. All are San Franciscans.

Rescue Effort Proves Futile

An early morning swim to climax a party which had assertedly begun at 2 a.m. and lasted through the rest of the night brought death Sunday in the San Mateo county coastside surf to a pretty, 24-year-old San Francisco blonde.

The victim was Patsy Hughes, 24, who came from Norfolk, Va., according to the story told officers by her companions on the party. They included her fiance, Jack Conlon, who lived at 1755 Geary street, San Francisco, in the same apartment house in which Miss Hughes resided, and Mr. and Mrs. William Bickley, 1540 Ellis street.

According to the story told Deputy Sheriff Hugh Williams, the two men, bartenders, had met the girls when they finished work; had gone on a party, then had decided at daybreak to go to the beach.

Arriving at Pedro Point shortly after 6, the group had gone onto the beach, and Miss Hughes, who had come prepared with her bathing suit, went swimming. All the group appeared to have been drinking, Deputy Sheriff Williams said.

Suddenly the group heard the swimming girl cry for help, and begin struggling.

Harold Spink, resident of the district who happened to be at the Stewart Boat House, put out in a boat and reached the girl before she sank but not before she had passed into unconsciousness, Williams said. The girl was floating face downward, Spink told the officer.

The Golden Gate station of the Coast Guard was notified, as was Sheriff James J. McGrath's office, which sent out Williams, and five men under Fritz Flukiger, all of whom had returned only a couple of hours before from their work aiding the refloating of the lumber freighter Mahwah aground off Pescadero, rushed in an automobile to the scene, and worked over the girl from 7:45 a.m. till after 10, but to no avail.

Dr. Oluf A. Ring, who later performed an autopsy at the W. C. Lasswell Mortuary in Daly City, declared death was due solely to drowning, although her companions on the fatal party had expressed belief she might have suffered a heart attack.

Business Leader Conference Set

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, July 15.—Outstanding business leaders and nationally known university scholars will participate in the forthcoming Conference for Junior Business Executives to be held on the Stanford campus July 19-23 under the sponsorship of the Graduate School of Business. One hundred or more carefully selected younger executives are expected to attend.

According to Dean J. Hugh Jackson of the Graduate School of Business, the week's sessions will embody three general types of meetings, namely, forenoon sessions at which prominent educators and business men will discuss in a practical, yet broad manner present-day problems vital to business welfare and progress; afternoon round-table meetings in the fields of banking and finance, distribution, production, labor and industrial relations, and business research, which will be led by practical men actually dealing with the problems arising in their respective fields; and evening dinner meetings at which speakers of national prominence will discuss certain broad-gauge problems facing business and industry.

POISON IVY MORE VIRULENT

MILWAUKEE (UP)—More people will be affected by poison ivy this summer than for many years, in the opinion of Albert M. Fuller, botanical curator of the Milwaukee public museum. Fuller said he knew of no reason for the excess virulence of the plant this year.

Will 'Disposes' Of Three Cities

A will, 100 years old, which would have disposed of the 14,000 acres of land on which are now situated the cities of Burlingame and San Bruno and the unincorporated area known as Millbrae has been discovered in San Mateo.

The will was that of Jose Antonio Sanchez, owner of the famous Buri Buri ranch. He died in 1843 at the age of 68, supposedly intestate.

His immense holdings, which now would have been worth millions of dollars, were distributed by agreement after a legal declaration that he had died without leaving a will.

It was suspected for years that Sanchez had made a will. In fact, a purpoted will was offered for probate in 1851, then suddenly withdrawn.

But a few weeks ago the historical document was unearthed by Dr. Frank M. Stanger, professor of history at San Mateo Junior College, who learned of its existence from a student, Miss Mildred Cavanaugh of Millbrae, a great-granddaughter of Sanchez. Mrs. Cavanaugh had had the will for years.

Legible, but written in Spanish, the will was drawn on two sheets of paper. Dr. Stanger spent some time translating it.

Discovery of the will will not affect disposition of the estate, which was disposed of February 19, 1864, in San Mateo District Court among 55 claimants, Dr. Stanger said. The document named eight of Sanchez' children as his heirs.

Four Minor Blazes Keep Firemen Busy

Varied but not serious were a series of fires which kept local firemen busy over the week-end.

Besides their usual quota of grass fires, one late Saturday at Jefferson and Grand avenues, and another late Sunday on Jefferson avenue, the firemen extinguished a fire Saturday in a couch on the front porch of an unoccupied home at Franklin and Diller streets and put out a Sunday blaze in a palm tree in front of the Jefferson avenue home of Mrs. Eva Behrens, 1240 Jefferson.

ELSIE JANIS, 'A. E. F. SWEETHEART,' PAYS VISIT TO 'HER BOYS' HERE

It's Elsie Janis!

Hundreds of the doughboys she had cheered during grim days at the front 20 years ago greeted her as an old friend Sunday when she visited the Veterans' Administration Facility here.

Like an electric spark she flashed from ward to ward to see "my boys." What was said at these meetings will never be known for she wants no one with her when she talks to these tragic wrecks of war, trying to cheer them now as she cheered them in camps and hospitals then.

For the one-time star of the musical comedy stage and the "sweetheart of the A.E.F." this is her life work. She wants no publicity on it and no applause on it. Her rewards are the "beautiful experiences" of renewing courage in hopeless men, seeing a light come into blank eyes.

She's not afraid of any of them, even the violent cases. They're her boys. "I don't want even the doctors along," she explained as she set out on her rounds, declining to be interviewed "because it would slow me up."

Ahead of her, news went from ward to ward that she was coming. On beds, in wheelchairs, and on front porches eager men were waiting. Eager women, too, for many of them among the patients and nurses had seen and heard Elsie Janis in France. They too had laughed and forgotten grim reality for a while.

Fifteen minutes before she was due, Miss Janis hopped from an unpretentious car in front of the administration building and dashed up the steps. Dr. P. G. Lasche, the medical officer in charge of the hospital, was at the door in an instant, recognizing the dark-eyed visitor despite her casual entrance.

It was hard to remember afterward that she wore a darkish sort of suit and hat designed more for utility than smartness. It wouldn't matter what she wore nor how many years had passed over her dark hair—there's something about the personality and voice of Elsie Janis that age cannot wither nor custom stale. And she's as slim and active as you remember her. Her eyes glow and her voice vibrates.

"Probably ex-ophthalmic type... all that driving power means too much thyroid," diagnosed one of the doctors as the sweetheart of the A.E.F. flashed off to her boys.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Consumption of finished steel in the United States last year was about 2350 pounds per family, the highest per family consumption since 1929.

Madam Ernestine Schumann-Heink, the great singer, was 75 years old when she died recently.

Library Changes Children's Hours During Summer

Children's hours at the Redwood City Public Library have been changed so that the room for boys and girls is now open from 2 to 5:30 p.m. daily except Saturdays. On Saturday the room is open to children between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

No evening hours for children will be maintained under the new setup.

However, Mrs. A. S. Kalenborn, president of the board of trustees, in announcing the new hours stressed the fact that should other hours be more convenient, they would be arranged for. Because of the limited staff at the library, the children's room can be supervised only the three and a half hours a day (with four hours on Saturday), Mrs. Kalenborn said. Parents are urged to give suggestions to the library staff or Miss Wilhelmina Harper, librarian, should other hours be desired.

Mrs. Kalenborn said the library staff also was interested to know if hours other than those maintained last year during the school term were desired when the vacation period ends.

During the winter, the children's room was open from 3 to 5:30 and 7 to 8 p.m. daily and on Saturdays in the afternoon.

"The whole problem is rather complicated now because of having the children's room on another floor from the main library," Mrs. Kalenborn explained, pointing out that if, and when, a new library is constructed, the children's room likely will be on the main floor.

Edward Blockley, Highway Builder, Park Head, Dies

Edward Blockley, 64, superintendent of Islam Shrine Park in the southern tip of San Mateo county, was mourned by his many friends today, the thousands of persons who knew him shocked at the suddenness with which death took the former engineer late Tuesday at the park.

Although he had been in ill health for some time and had been stricken with a heart seizure last week at a barbecue attended by many county officials, Mr. Blockley's death was very sudden. He was helping unload a truck at the park when he slumped to the ground.

His passing closed a colorful career that was closely entwined with the Islam Park, with El Camino Real and with fish and game conservation work.

Mr. Blockley was superintendent of the park for 12 years. Before that he served for many years as an engineer for the state highway division.

He was closely connected with the work of mapping out and constructing El Camino Real, from San Francisco south, and his friends said that it was he who laid out the course of the highway and directed the work 15 years ago as chief engineer of the highway division.

His work as superintendent of the park threw him into contact with thousands of persons, many of them prominent, and regret at his death will reach into elite circles of royalty, his friends declared.

He was born in England, but came to the United States as a young man. He had traveled widely.

Mr. Blockley had a home in Palo Alto at 235 Middlefield road where he lived in winter, but during the spring and summer months he lived at the Islam Park.

He is survived by his second wife, Mrs. Marie Blockley, and by two children of his first marriage and one from the second.

William Blockley, his son by his present wife, is a student at Palo Alto high school. Constance Stone of Oakland and Ted Blockley of San Francisco are his children by an earlier marriage, which ended in divorce.

Dudley Truelsen, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Truelsen, who are spending the summer at Emerald Lake, suffered a broken arm Saturday. He was treated at Mills Memorial Hospital.

The changing of industrial markets in the United States is illustrated by the fact that in 1899 Massachusetts produced 47.2 per cent of the nation's shoe output as compared with 20.5 per cent in 1934.

The city of Johannesburg, South Africa was founded after gold was discovered there in 1886.

WHY SUFFER
When Others Fail try Our CHINESE HERB

Yee & Ko Herb Co.,
Dear Sirs: I am writing this letter to tell you how much your herbs have helped me.
I have been suffering from Bleeding Bowels and was continuously passing blood for quite a while. I have tried many other medicines, which did not help me.
Finally I took my neighbor's advice to come to you. After taking the first two doses of your herbs I noticed that my passing blood gradually reduced, and after I had finished my week's treatment I was completely recovered from my ailment.
I am writing this to testify the benefit which I received from your medicine, and now I gladly recommend Yee & Ko herbs to anyone who suffers.
Yours truly,
(Signed) CHARLES WUERCH.
